  3. In Part –III, the Lump-sum amount of fund received from the political party or others or the candidate's own funds, should be mentioned date wise. In all such cases such amounts are required to be first deposited in the bank account of the candidate, opened for election expenses.
  4. Each page of the Abstract Statement should be signed by the candidate expenditure incurred/ authorised by the candidate/ election agent/the party/ any other person. Regarding source of such expenses, any amount incurred/authorised by the candidate from his own fund should be mentioned in the relevant column. Amount received from political party or incurred or authorised by political party either in cash or in kind shall be mentioned in the column meant for the purpose. Source of any amount either received in cash or in kind from any person or entity other than political party shall be mentioned in the separate column meant for this purpose.

(Revised by the Commission vide its letter no. 76/Virtual Campaign/EEPS/2022, dated 15th January, 2022, placed at Annexure-F8)

- (B) Cash Register: All the amounts received in cash from any source including withdrawal from any bank account of the candidate are to be entered date wise in the cash register from the date of nomination to the date of declaration of results. Name and address of person, or entity from whom amount is received in cash shall be entered in receipt column of the cash register. If the amount is withdrawn in cash from the bank account opened for election purpose, the same should also be shown in the Receipt Columns with appropriate description. All expenses incurred in cash shall be entered in Payment Columns. When any amount of cash is deposited in the bank account of the candidate the same shall also be entered in the payment columns. 'Nil' should be mentioned against the date wherever no receipt or payment has been made. Date wise cash balance is required to be shown. If cash is given to any person or any branch office of the candidate, the same should be clearly mentioned. Efforts should be made as far as possible to make all payments through cheques and carrying huge amounts of cash in the constituency during election campaign should be avoided.
- (C) Bank Register: The candidate shall deposit the entire amount, meant for election expenses received from any source including his own fund, in the bank account opened for the purpose of election. All the election expenses are to be incurred by issuing cheques from this bank account only. However in case of minor expenses, where it is not possible to issue a cheque, the amount can be withdrawn in cash and payments are to be made with proper vouchers. Details of deposits, withdrawals and daily balance shall be entered in respective columns of the Bank Register. 'Nil' should be mentioned against the date wherever no deposit or withdrawal has been made.

5. Appointment of Additional Expenditure Agent on part of candidate: Under the existing instruction of the Commission, every candidate is permitted to appoint an additional agent in the prescribed format (Annexure-E3) assisting the candidate in the various expenditure related matters. A person who is disqualified under the law for being chosen as, and for being, a Member of Parliament or State Legislature and who cannot be appointed as Election Agent u/s 40 of the R. P. Act, 1951, should not be appointed such an additional agent. The general prohibition against appointing minister/MP/MLA/MLC/Mayor or Corporation/Chairman or Municipality/Zila Parishad, as any agent for a candidate, would also apply to such additional agent. It may be noted that such additional agent would be for the purpose of performing only the non-statutory duties and not the duties that the election agent, appointed under section 40 read with rule 12 of C. E. Rules, 1961, is authorized to perform on behalf of the candidate.

6. The procedural requirements for lodging the account of election expenses by the candidate:

- (A) Procedural requirements for lodging of the accounts: The candidate has to submit the Abstract Statement as per Annexure – E2 along with the Register of day to day accounts, bills & vouchers and the supporting affidavit. The Abstract Statement comprises of Part I to Part IV together with acknowledgement form and is followed by Schedule 1 to 11 thereof. In these schedules, the details of election expenditure incurred /authorized by the candidate or party or others on various items, source of candidate's funds have to be shown. All parts and schedules thereof should be properly filled up and wherever it is not applicable, the candidate shall write 'nil' or 'not applicable'.

- (B) The documents required along with the Abstract Statement: Register for day-to-day accounts of election expenditure as inspected by the Observer shall be submitted in original along with the vouchers. If vouchers are not attached for any item, an explanation, as to why it was not practical to obtain the required vouchers, must be given by the candidate. All bills and vouchers should be signed either by the candidate or his election agent.
- (i) The Parts I to IV and schedules 1 to 11 of the Abstract Statement must be signed by the candidate himself.
  - (ii) Copy of the bank statement as certified by the candidate or his election agent should also be attached.
  - (iii) Affidavit should be signed by the candidate himself as per the format and submitted with Abstract Statement.
  - (iv) Acknowledgement as prescribed by the Commission indicating date and time of receipt of accounts of election expenses should be given by the officer deputed by the DEO for this purpose.
  - (v) In case of discrepancies on any item of expenditure which was pointed out by the Expenditure Observer or the RO at the time of inspection of the Register, the explanation along with the reason for the discrepancy on such items should be annexed separately.
  - (vi) Copies of the notices issued by the RO and explanation furnished in respect of Election Expenditure should be enclosed.
  - (vii) It should be made known to the candidate or his election agent that under statutory provisions, even a candidate who has lost the election has to lodge his account of election expenses within the stipulated time and in the manner prescribed otherwise he is liable to be disqualified.
- (C) Consequences of defective statements: Submitting statements which are not correct and true, may result in issuance of notice by the Commission for default that may lead to disqualification for 3 years for being a member of, and also for being chosen as a member to, either House of the Parliament or State Legislatures under section 10A of the R. P. Act, 1951.

The officer present at the counter for receiving the accounts should check whether the account submitted by the candidate or his agent is complete in all respects and is duly certified by the candidate. A certificate by the election agent is not sufficient. It should also be checked that all the documents which are required to be submitted along with the account statement, such as register, abstract statements (Part I to IV and schedules 1 to 11 including affidavit), bills and vouchers are enclosed with the account. Bills and vouchers should be signed by the candidate. If incomplete accounts are lodged, the defects may be mentioned in acknowledgement receipt itself and should be pointed out to the candidate or his election agent on the spot, with instructions to file correct and complete accounts within the time prescribed by law.

Under Rule 87 of the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961, the DEO is required to affix a notice on the notice board within two days from the date on which a candidate lodges his account of election expenses, specifying therein the names of the candidate and the date on which the accounts were lodged. Copy of the Abstract Statement of Account of election expenditure filed by the candidates and the first runner up in each constituency should be put on the notice board
