Introduction and consent: Greeting! My name is ----- (full name). I work for ----- (name of institute) a research organization based in ----- (place) that regularly conducts surveys on various socio-economic and political issues. Presently we are interviewing people here in ----- (name of town/village) in ----- (state) and collecting information regarding about their electoral participation. I'm going to ask you some questions related to registration and participations in elections. Some of the answers to the questions may be personal, but I want you to know that all your answers will be kept completely confidential. There is no compulsion on answering every question and you may choose not to respond to any question. Further, you may also terminate this interview at any time if you are uncomfortable answering the questions. There is no penalty for refusing to take part in this interview nor is there any incentive for participation. However, your honest answers to these questions will help us better understand how people think. We would greatly appreciate your help in responding to this survey. The survey will take about ----- minutes to ask these questions. Would you be willing to participate?

INSTRUCTIONS TO SELECT RESPONDENTS FROM KISH GRID: Look at the last digit of the questionnaire number on the cover page. This is the row number you should circle. Check the total number of eligible respondents from the household roster or B2. This is the column number you should circle. Find the box where the circled row and the circled column meet and circle the number that appears in the box. Record this in B12. This is the selected respondent to whom you should administer the questionnaire. For example, if the household questionnaire number is '3716', go to row 6 and circle the row number ('6'). If there are three people eligible for an interview in the household (it does not matter if they are available for interview or not), go to column 3 and circle the column number ('3'). Draw lines from row 6 and column 3 and find the box where the two meet, and circle the number in it ('2'). This means you have to select the second eligible person.
